Fun and Fund Raising Evening

For the Tasmanian members of the 2011 Australian Fly Fishing Team

You are invited to an evening of fun and fund raising to support the Tasmanian Members of the Australian Fly Fishing Team who are competing in the 2011 World Fly Fishing Championships in Italy.

Craig Carey, Joe Riley and Ian Donnachy all won their way through to represent Australia and this is your chance to help them on their way.

There will be a lucky door prize, monster raffle and some great items up for auction.

- Huon pine fly box with 200 Joe Riley flies.
- New Simpson washing machine
- New dishlex dishwasher
- New Stokes stainless steel urn
- One day guided fishing with Chris Bassano
- One day river fishing (secret location) John Donnachy
- One day guided fishing with Jonothan Stagg
- Weekend fishing for four people with two nights accommodation in Miena, all meals and drinks fully guided by Craig Carey, Joe Riley and Ian Donnachy
- Set tyres from Bob Gardner at Jax tyres
- New 6'6 3wt cane fly rod in rod tube
- Vision fly reel with 2 spare spools
- Dinner voucher at Launceston's Watermill Tavern
- Matthew Goss signed and framed jersey

This is only part of the huge range on offer on the night.

The team members will also be presented with their Australian Fly Fishing Team Blazer during the evening, and will incorporate the medal presentation for the 2011 Tasmanian Fly Fishing Championship.
